

Farmworker Institute of Education and Leadership Development
CESAR E. CHAVEZ FIELD CORPS

State Certified Local Conservation Corps

“Providing economic and social prosperity for young adults by developing leadership skills through conservation work”

The Cesar E. Chavez FIELD Corps has trained skilled supervisors to lead crewmembers in an array of field and conservation projects. Invest in your community by hiring a Cesar E. Chavez FIELD Corps Crew.

Below is a summary of types of work projects:

- Trail Building & Maintenance
- Erosion/Flood Control
- Landscaping
- Habitat Restoration
- Tree Planting/Urban Forestry Services
- Graffiti Removal
- Native Plant Propagation
- Invasive Species Removal
- Community Outreach & Canvassing
- Illegal Off Highway Vehicle Trail Restoration
- Recycling- Large & Small Scale
- Fire Fuel Restoration
- Event Clean Ups
- Litter Abatement

For more information please contact Isabel Martinez at (442) 226-2896 or at imartinez@fieldinstitute.org